Pastor Mike is a graduate of Southeastern Baptist Theological College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biblical Studies and holds a master's degree in Religion, Leadership and Business Ethics (MAR-LBE) from Gordon-Conwell Seminary, South Hamilton, MA.

Pastor Mike is also a Certified Transitional Pastor and has worked with several churches in that capacity, helping to renew and revitalize churches by working with leaders and congregants, setting them on a new trajectory for growth.

He served as a Workplace Chaplain for more than 20 years. During that time his mission field included thousands of employees in small and large companies including serving as the National Account Director for Coca Cola Bottlers Consolidated headquartered in Charlotte, NC. In that role Mike oversaw the 35 chaplains who cared for CCBC's 6,000 employees. Mike also served as the interim Director of Stewardship for Coke Consolidated providing leadership in the coordination of employee volunteer activities in multi-state communities reporting directly to the Vice-Chairman of Coca-Cola Consolidated.

He has also owned a corporate consulting firm called SymPraxis Group. SymPraxis Group is a unique business ethics consulting company helping clients determine their cultural and moral direction for their companies.

Mike lives in Charlotte, NC with his wife of 28 years Angie, and their daughter, Angelina who is a student at UNC-Wilmington. They are excited and honored that God has called them to serve at Eastway Baptist Church. Their goal is to teach God's Word, serve anyone at any time, demonstrate the relevance of the Bible in everyday 21st century life, and see many come to a personal knowledge and relationship with Jesus Christ through their ministry.
